

CPRE NORFOLK AWARDS 2007

Norfolk Wildlife Trust Cley Marshes Visitor Centre

New ecologically designed visitors centre which blends into North Norfolk landscape

Architects: Tony Calcott RIBA and David Thompson RIBA of LSI Architects

Owners: Norfolk Wildlife Trust

Builders: H Smith and Sons Ltd of Honingham

'Aspects of Design in Cromer': Book

A detailed publication of vernacular architecture in Cromer

Author: Andy Boyce

Publishers: North Norfolk District Council

Gooderstone Primary School Wildlife Garden: HC

Creation of a varied wildlife garden and playground for young children

Gooderstone Primary School

Landscape Designer: David Yates, Norfolk County Council

Costessey High School Olympic Garden

Creation of a multi-habitat wildlife garden for the benefit of the school and local community

Costessey High School

Landscape Designer: David Yates, Norfolk County Council

Hill House, Gimingham: HC

Ecologically designed house built into the side of a North Norfolk sandpit

Owner, Architect and Builder: Tom Ground RIBA

North Lopham Village Pond Restoration

Restoration of pond and surrounding green, creating an amenity area in the village centre

North Lopham Parish Council

Ecologist: Ed Stocker, Norfolk County Council

North Walsham Infant School and Nursery Playground

Redesign of outdoor spaces for environmental learning and play

North Walsham Infant School and Nursery

Designers: Free Form Arts Trust

Good Lighting Scheme at Foundry Nurseries, Hempnall: C

Appropriate use of security lighting and CCTV cameras to minimise light pollution

Owner: Paul Stevenson

New Public Toilets and Architects' Office, Aylsham

An exciting contemporary piece of architecture in an historic setting

Architect: Reynolds Jury Architecture Ltd
Aylsham Town Council

Restoration and New Extension of the Ancient House Museum, Thetford

Restoration of an historic timber framed building with contemporary extension and courtyard garden

Architect: Nigel Sunter RIBA of Purcell Miller Tritton LLP
The Ancient House Museum, Thetford

Restoration of Primrose Farm

Complete restoration of 15th Century timber framed farmhouse, barn and outbuildings

Owner: Tom Atkins
Conservation Consultant: Alan Creasy
Site Manager: Doug Oakley
Building Conservators: Ian Simons and Lee McInnes
Conservation Officer: Andrew Gayton

Cottage Restoration at Shipdham: HC

Cottage restoration with minimal intervention to fabric and character of original building

Owner: Andrew Gayton

Southrepps Common Local Nature Reserve

Restoration of boardwalk and management of wetland nature reserve

Southrepps Commons Trust

Cedar House, Cringleford: HC

Energy efficient house with ground source heating and contemporary design

Architect: Crispin Lambert Architecture
Builder: Gary Hayes, Willow Builders
Owners: Mr and Mrs Ballard

Restoration of Greyfriars Tower and Gardens

Restoration of historic landmark in Kings Lynn with exciting redesign of surrounding gardens

Architect: Nigel Sunter RIBA of Purcell Miller Tritton LLP
Landscape Designer: Rhona Fleming RIBA, Jeremy Stacey Architects
Kings Lynn and West Norfolk Borough Council

'The Vernacular Architecture of Breckland': Book and Exhibition

A detailed study of vernacular building materials and styles of the Breckland region

Breckland Society.
Analyst: Tom Williamson

Traditional Hedgelaying at Narborough Hall: HC

Hedgelaying at historic hall in West Norfolk using traditional skills

Hedgelayer: Clive Braddock

Owners: Mr and Mrs Robert Sandelson

Old Buckenham Community Primary School: Environmental Policy and Management

Environmental management of school grounds and cross-curriculum environmental policy

Old Buckenham Community Primary School

Landscape Designer: David Yates, Norfolk County Council

Woodsend, Hargham

Contemporary timber framed house with curved sedum roofs and high standard of finish, with well designed landscaping

Developer: Amanda Barrington

Architect: Roderick James

Landscape Designer: Duncan Rice

Management of Whitwell Common

Management of Site of Special Scientific Interest with minimal intervention to original historic landscape

Whitwell Common Management Trust

Ecologist: Heidi Thompson, Norfolk County Council

Conservation Advisor: Adrian Gardiner, Natural England

Site Manager: Ernest Hoyos

Dersingham Junior School Wildlife Garden

Creation of a school wildlife garden and bird hide with disabled access

Dersingham St George's Junior School

Landscape Designer: David Yates, Norfolk County Council

Wildfowl and Wetland Trust Visitor Centre, Welney

Contemporary barn-like structure in open fenland designed to a high ecological standard

Wildfowl and Wetland Trust

Architect: Allies and Morrison Architects

Contractors: Kier Eastern

The CPRE Norfolk Awards 2007 are judged by Martin Walton, Nancy Legg and Jeremy Stacey. The CPRE Norfolk Awards 2007 are sponsored by Targetfollow Group Ltd. The Awards will be presented by the sponsors on Tuesday 6th November at the Assembly House in Norwich.

For further information, contact James Frost (CPRE Norfolk Director) on 01603 761660.