

CPRE NORFOLK AWARDS 2008 - PROJECTS

ARCHITECTURAL PROJECTS

Roman Catholic Church of the Annunciation, Little Walsingham

A contemporary design of a church using traditional Norfolk materials and renewable energy sources

Architect: Mr Anthony Rossi

Owner: The Roman Catholic Diocese of East Anglia

Extension and restoration of Oddfellows Hall, Sheringham

A contemporary two-storey entrance to the refurbished Oddfellows Hall

Architect: Mr Mark Nolan of Chaplin & Farrant Ltd

Owner: The Sheringham Plus Community Council

GreenGauge Homes, Lingwood

A complex of 15 new social houses using alternative energy resources and sustainable materials, built for a housing association.

Architect: Peter Wells for Barefoot & Gilles

Developers: Flagship Housing Group

Refurbishment of Daubeney Hall Farm

Restoration of a listed farmhouse with a sustainable contemporary extension

Owners: Martin and Robin Burkitt

Architect: Mr Charles Emberson

The Orangery at Burnley Hall

*Conversion of an Edwardian billiard room to an orangery, with a glass vestibule link to the Grade II* listed Georgian house*

Architect: Mr Henry Kelf RIBA

Owners: Mr & Mrs T Agnew

Contractor: Steve Morrell of John Youngs Builders

New dental surgery and refurbishment of No 21 Red Lion Street, Aylsham

Repair and restoration of a former shop premises creating a new flat above and the relocation of a dental practice in the rear yard

Architect: Ms Janet Jury for Reynolds Jury Architecture Ltd

Owners: Mr & Mrs Michael Smit

Marshams Barn, Kenninghall

Conversion of a redundant barn to residential use, using traditional materials, ground source heating, a wind turbine and rainwater recovery

Owners, Designers and Builders: Christian and Jo Mountney

Straw Barn, Snetterton

A new barn-style residence created with straw bales and locally sourced materials

Owners: Will and Tess Draper

Architect: Mr David Cumming for CSA Design Studio

Fairhaven Garden Trust visitors centre and tearoom

New environmentally friendly visitor centre with covered veranda and events courtyard

Owner: The Fairhaven Trust

Architectural Design Consultant: Keith Powley

Mill Hill Gardens, South Walsham

Comprehensive remodelling and extension of a small 1930s house

Architect: Mr Henry Kelf RIBA

Owners: Mr & Mrs K Futter

Builders: Willow Builders

Bayfield Brecks Barns, Letheringsett

Restoration of an historic complex of barns and its conversion into workshops and offices

Owner: Roger Combe

Sculthorpe Moor Community Nature Reserve education centre

New education and visitor centre with ground source heat pump and wind turbine

Owners: The Hawk and Owl Trust

Architect: Ian Bix

Project Manager: Peter Cooper

Eeyore's Barn, Great Hockham

New workshop building created with recycled clay lump blocks, tiles and wood

Owners: Harry & Pamela Stebbing

Architect: Dirk Bouwens

Extension to Forncett St Peter C.E. V.A. Primary School

Contemporary extension to a Victorian school incorporating 2 new classrooms, a school hall, a staffroom and a main entrance

Architect: Stuart Jones of Feilden & Mawson

School: Forncett St Peter C.E. V.A. Primary School

ENVIRONMENTAL PROJECTS

Catton Park, Norwich

*Restoration of historic grade II* parkland to a community amenity*

Owner: Catton Park Trust

Landscape Architects: Parklands Consortium Ltd

Conservation Manager: Barbara Hornbrook for Broadland District Council

River Glaven Restoration Project

Community project of realignment and habitat restoration of the River Glaven

Project Managers: The River Glaven Conservation Group

Landowners: The Cozens Hardy Family

Heavy Plant Operations: Peter Howard

Cary's Meadow, Norwich

Management of a 22 acre meadow for community use and enjoyment

Project Officer and Site Manager: Matthew Davies for the Norwich Fringe Project

Acle, Burlingham, South Walsham and Lingwood Woodland Walks

Walks through newly planted woodlands, orchards and sculptures, located in five villages

Project Management: Norfolk County Council

Norfolk Biodiversity, Heritage and Health Walks

A series of countryside health walks based around Norfolk market towns

Project Management: Norfolk County Council

Millenium Woodland, Sprowston

Creation of a community woodland in Sprowston with native tree planting, wildflower meadow and wheelchair access

Owners: Sprowston Parish Council

Landscape Consultant: Nicholas J Newton

Unicorn Yard, Aylsham

Landscaping improvements to a pedestrian right of way into Aylsham town centre

Architect: Christine Boswell for Purcell Miller Tritton Architects

Conservation Manager: Barbara Hornbrook for Broadland District Council

Forest Park Caravan Site

Holiday park set and managed sympathetically within mature woodland

Owner: Simon and Deborah Gurney

General Manager: Nicholas Pearce

EDUCATIONAL PROJECTS

Roots & Shoots - Holt Hall Field Studies Centre

Restoration of a walled kitchen garden within school grounds as an educational project for children of diverse backgrounds

Project Co-ordinators: Chris Wright and Christine Marshall for the Roots & Shoots Growing For The Future Project

Banham Community Primary School

Development of school field and other grounds for environmental and gardening uses

School: Banham Community Primary School

Landscape Architect: David Yates for Norfolk County Council

Project Manager: Peter Chambers for Education Advice Centre

Erpingham Primary School

Environmental development of school grounds with curriculum policy

School: Erpingham Primary School

Landscape Assistant: Catherine Walls for Norfolk County Council

Originator: Louise Ambrose